We'll weave a love that greens sure as spring, then deepens in summer to the fall autumn brings — Resting still in winter to spiral a gain — to gether my friends will weave on — we'll weave on — a love that heals friend, that bends friend, that rising and turning then yields friend, like mountain to rain — or frost in the spring or darkness that turns with the dawn — It's by turn-ing, turning, turn-ing my friend, by turn-ing that love moves on

We'll weave a love that opens our eyes to see one another beyond all disguise Where our trust like water will wash away lies Together my friends we'll weave on,
we'll weave one

We'll weave a love that touches our pain, that comes like the water to drought-fevered plains
So the roots once withered sing praise to the rain Together my friends we'll weave on,
we'll weave on

We'll weave a love that holds the despised, the stranger who wanders the focus of lies We'll stand sure as mountains with Earth's victimized Together my friends we'll weave on,
we'll weave on

We'll weave a love with roots growing deep and sap pushing branches to wake from their sleep Bearing leaves burnt amber with morning's full sweep Together my friends we'll weave on,
we'll weave on
